IN RE: Sandi Miller v. Pennsylvania Department of Transportation,
OOR Dkt. AP 2016-1275

Upon review of the appeal filed with the Office of Open Records ("OOR") to the above-referenced docket number, it is determined that the appeal is deficient for the reason(s) specified below. Accordingly, the appeal is DISMISSED, and the local agency is not required to take any further action.

- Appeal filed beyond fifteen (15) business days of denial/deemed denial.
- Appeal failed to include a copy of the Request and/or agency Response.
- Appeal failed to state why records are public records.
- Appeal failed to address agency grounds for denial of access to records.
- OOR lacks jurisdiction over agency from which records are sought.
- OOR lacks jurisdiction over local agency criminal investigative records.
- Other: Appeal must state why documents requested are public. See 65 P.S. § 67.1101(a)(1). Appeal does not address the outstanding fees owed from previous request and the Agency's reason(s) for denying access to the requested records. Appeal may be re-filed no later than August 16, 2016.

Within thirty days of the mailing date of this Final Determination, you may appeal or petition for review with the Commonwealth Court. 65 P.S. § 67.1301(a). All parties must be served with notice of the appeal. The OOR also shall be served notice and have an opportunity to respond according to court rules as per 65 P.S. § 67.1303. However, as the quasi-judicial tribunal adjudicating this matter, the OOR is not a proper party to any appeal and should not be named as a party.¹
