

FINAL DETERMINATION

DATE ISSUED AND MAILED: June 17, 2026

IN RE: Deanna Patchett and Frasco Investigative Services v. Conshohocken Borough; OOR Dkt. AP 2026-1529

Upon review of the appeal filed with the Office of Open Records (“OOR”) to the above-referenced docket number, wherein Deanna Patchett and Frasco Investigative Services (collectively “Requester”) sought records related to a specific incident report, it is determined that the appeal is DISMISSED because:

The OOR lacks jurisdiction. The OOR does not have jurisdiction to hear appeals related to criminal investigative records held by local law enforcement agencies. See 65 P.S. § 67.503(d)(2). Instead, appeals involving records alleged to be criminal investigative records held by a local law enforcement agency are to be heard by an appeals officer designated by the local district attorney.¹ Accordingly, the OOR lacks jurisdiction over this matter.

For this reason, the Borough is not required to take any further action. Within thirty days of the mailing date of this Final Determination, you may appeal or petition for review with Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas. 65 P.S. § 67.1302(a). All parties must be served with notice of the appeal. The OOR also shall be served notice and have an opportunity to respond according to court rules as per 65 P.S. § 67.1303. However, as the quasi-judicial tribunal adjudicating this matter, the OOR is not a proper party to any appeal and should not be named as a party.² All documents or communications following the issuance of this Final Determination shall be sent to oor-postfd@pa.gov. This Final Determination shall be placed on the website at: <http://openrecords.pa.gov>.
