ORDER

AND NOW, this 5th day of November, 2018, after Oral Argument on the appeal by Megan Shannon from the decision of the Office of Open Records ("OOR"), trial court remands this matter to the OOR to make further findings regarding the confidential proprietary information exemption including (1) the efforts the parties took to maintain the confidentiality of the information, and (2) whether disclosure of confidential information will cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person from whom the information was obtained, which includes consideration of the actual competition in the relevant market and the likelihood of substantial competitive injury if the information was released. The OOR should provide separate findings for PIDC and the City
