| Case Status:                  | Partially Granted/Partially Denied |

Final Determination Outcome:

Issued: 07/09/2026

The Requests have 111 subparts and seek records relating to the County Domestic Relations Section, ethics disclosures of certain public officials, contracts, financial records, and insurance records of the County. The OOR does not have jurisdiction over records held by a judicial agency. The County is not required to create additional records or perform research to respond to a request. The Requests are insufficiently specific in part. Certain records sought are exempt from public disclosure as communications between an agency and their insurance carrier and under the Internal Revenue Code. Granted in part, denied in part, and dismissed for lack of jurisdiction in part.
